(3) The Board of Directors may delegate such general or specific authority to the Officers of the Company as a board of directors of a Nevada corporation may delegate to the officers of such corporation.

B. Officers.

(1) Subject to such other authority as may be specifically designated to them by the Board of Directors, the Officers of the Company shall have such powers as are usually exercised by comparably designated officers of a Nevada corporation and shall have the power to bind the Company through the exercise of those powers.

Name	Title
Emily T. Neilson	President
Guy R. Friddell, III	Vice President
Teresa F. Blevins	Treasurer
Susan S. Goetz	Assistant Secretary
Colleen R. Pittman	Assistant Secretary

(3) The Board of Directors (or the Member) may appoint such additional Officers of the Company as they (or it) determine in their (or its) sole discretion.

7. LIMIT ON LIABILITY AND INDEMNIFICATION.

A. Definitions.

For purpose of this Section 7 the following definitions shall apply:

“Expenses” include counsel fees, expert witness fees, and costs of investigation, litigation and appeal, as well as any amounts expended in asserting a claim for indemnification.

“Liability” means the obligation to pay a judgment, settlement, penalty, fine, or other such obligation, including without limitation, any excise tax assessed with respect to an employee benefit plan.

“Legal Entity” means a limited liability company, corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust, employee benefit plan or other enterprise. A person shall be considered to be serving an employee benefit plan at the Company’s request if his duties to the Company also impose duties on, or otherwise involve services by, him to the plan or to participants in or beneficiaries of the plan.

“Proceeding” means any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, proceeding or appeal whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative and whether formal or informal.

B. Exculpation of Directors and Officers.

No Director or Officer shall be liable, responsible or accountable in damages or otherwise to the Company or to any Member, or to any successor, assignee or transferee of the Company or of any Member, for any losses, claims, damages or liabilities arising from (i) any act performed, or the omission to perform any act, within the scope of the authority conferred on the Director or Officer under this Agreement or the Act, except by reason of acts or omissions of the Director or Officer found by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final judgment to be due to willful misconduct or a knowing violation of the criminal law; (ii) the performance by the Director or Officer of, or the omission to perform, any acts on advice of legal counsel, accountants or other professional consultants to the Company; or (iii) the negligence, dishonesty or bad faith of any consultant, employee or agent of the Company selected or engaged by the Director or Officer in good faith.

C. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

To the fullest extent permitted by law, including, without limitation, Sections 86.411 and 86.421 of the Act, the Company shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless (and may contract in advance to do so) any individual who is, was or is threatened to be made a party to a proceeding because (i) he is or was a Director or Officer of the Company (or in respect of acts or omissions to acts occurring in his capacity as such, including, without limitation, any acts or omissions to act occurring in his capacity as such relating to distributions by the Company to the Member, whether before or in dissolution), or (ii) while a Director or Officer of the Company, he is or was serving the Company or any other Legal Entity in any capacity at the request of the Company (or in respect of acts or omissions to act occurring in his capacity as such), against all liabilities and reasonable expenses incurred in the proceeding (regardless of whether the proceeding is by or in the right of the Company), except for any such liabilities and expenses in relation to matters as to which he shall have been found by a court of competent jurisdiction upon entry of a final judgment to be the result of his willful misconduct or knowing violation of the criminal law. Unless a determination has been made that indemnification is not permissible, the Company shall make advances and reimbursements for expenses incurred by a Director or Officer in a proceeding upon receipt of (x) a written statement, executed personally, of his good faith belief that he has met the standard of conduct that is a prerequisite to his entitlement to indemnification hereunder, and (y) a written undertaking from him to repay the advances and reimbursements if it is ultimately determined that he is not entitled to indemnification. Such undertaking shall be an unlimited, unsecured general obligation of the Director or Officer and shall be accepted without reference to his ability to make repayment. The termination of a proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent shall not of itself create a presumption that a Director or Officer acted in such a manner as to make him ineligible for indemnification.

D. Indemnification of Others.

(1) The Company shall indemnify, and make advancements and reimbursements for expenses to, any individual not otherwise specified in Section 7.C above who is, was or is threatened to be made a party to a proceeding because he is or was a director or officer of a subsidiary of the Company (or in respect of acts or omissions to act occurring in his capacity as such) to the same extent as if such person were specified as one to whom such indemnification, advancement and reimbursement is required under Section 7.C.

(2) The Company may, to a lesser extent or to the same extent that the Company is required to provide indemnification and make advances and reimbursements for expenses to its Directors and Officers, provide indemnification and make advances and reimbursements for expenses to its employees and agents, the employees and agents of its subsidiaries, and any person serving any other Legal Entity in any capacity at the request of the Company, and, if authorized by general or specific action of the Board of Directors, may contract in advance to do so. The determination that indemnification under this Section 7.D(2) is permissible, the authorization of such indemnification, and the evaluation as to the reasonableness of expenses in a specific case shall be made as authorized from time to time by general or specific action of the Board of Directors, which action may be taken before or after a claim for indemnification is made, or as otherwise provided by law.

(3) No person's rights under Section 7.C above shall be limited by the provisions of this Section 7.D.

E. Right to Indemnification.

The Company's obligation to indemnify and to advance expenses under this Section 7 shall arise, and all rights granted to Directors and Officers hereunder shall vest, at the time of the occurrence of the transaction or event to which such action, suit or proceeding relates, or at the time that the action or conduct to which such action, suit or proceeding relates was first taken or engaged in (or omitted to be taken or engaged in), regardless of when such action, suit or proceeding is first threatened, commenced or completed, and regardless of whether such action or conduct occurred prior to the date of the adoption of this Section 7 by the Member. Notwithstanding Section 10 of this Agreement, no action taken by the Company, either by amendment of this Agreement or otherwise, shall diminish or adversely affect any rights to indemnification or advancement of expenses granted under this Section 7 which shall have become vested as aforesaid prior to the date that such amendment or other action is taken.

F. Miscellaneous.

Any Director, Officer, employee, agent or other person or entity which is entitled to indemnification by the Company under this Section 7 shall have the right to employ counsel in connection with the defense to any proceeding covered by such indemnification. In such case, such indemnitee shall not consent to entry of any judgment or enter into any settlement to any proceeding covered by the indemnification under this Section 7 without the prior written consent of the Company (which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld); provided, however, that the Company shall not be entitled to withhold its consent to the proposed entry of a judgment or settlement as aforesaid unless it shall have theretofore made its determination under Section 7.C or Section 7.D of this Section 7, as the case may be, that indemnification for such purpose shall be made by the Company. Every reference in this Section 7 to persons who are or may be entitled to indemnification shall include all persons who formerly occupied any of the positions referred to and their respective heirs, executors and administrators. Special legal counsel selected to make determinations under this Section 7 may be counsel for the Company. Indemnification (including reimbursement or advancement of expenses) pursuant to this Section 7 shall not be exclusive of any other right of indemnification to which any person may be entitled, including indemnification pursuant to a valid contract, indemnification by Legal Entities other than the Company and indemnification under policies of insurance purchased and maintained by the Company or others. The Company is authorized to purchase and maintain insurance against any liability it may have under this Section 7 or to protect any of the persons named above against any liability arising from their service to the Company or any other Legal Entity at the request of the Company regardless of the Company's power to indemnify against such liability. The provisions of this Section 7 shall not be deemed to prohibit the Company from entering into contracts otherwise permitted by law with any individuals or Legal Entities, including those named above, for the purpose of conducting the business of the Company. If any provision of this Section 7 or its application to any person or circumstance is held invalid by a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of this Section 7, and to this end the provisions of this Section 7 are severable.

8. ASSIGNMENT OF INTERESTS; SUBSTITUTION OF MEMBER.

A. Transfer of Interests; Substitution of Member.

The Member may transfer, assign or otherwise dispose of all or any portion of its Interest. If the Member transfers its entire Interest, then the transferee shall be admitted as a substituted member upon completion and the transferee's acceptance of the transfer without further action and shall thereafter be the Member for purposes of this Agreement. If the Member transfers less than its entire Interest, then the transferee shall be admitted as a substituted member with respect to the transferred Interest upon the written consent of the Member.

B. Amendment of Agreement on Transfer.

Upon the admission of a second member, this Agreement shall be restated in its entirety to address the relative rights and obligations of the members and the change of status for income tax purposes.

9. DISSOLUTION OF THE COMPANY.

The Company shall be dissolved upon the written declaration of the Member or the entry of a judicial decree of dissolution. Upon an event causing dissolution of the Company, the Directors or, if none, the Member shall wind up the Company's affairs. After paying or providing for the payment of all Company debts, the proceeds of sale shall be distributed to the Member. If the Directors or, if none, the Member determines that an immediate sale would be financially inadvisable, they may defer sale of the Company assets for a reasonable time or distribute the assets in kind. The Company shall continue and not dissolve as a result of dissolution or bankruptcy of the Member or any other event that terminates the membership of the Member in the Company so long as a successor is admitted as a Member.

10. AMENDMENT.

Amendment of this Agreement shall require the written consent of the Member.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the undersigned have executed this Agreement as of the day and year first above written.
